

A JEWISH RABBI

Preached Jesus Christ Crucified
at St. Paul, Minn.

The Members of the Synagogue Rush Upon Him

And Beat Him in a Horrible Manner and Then Threw Him Out of the Edifice—The Rabbi Will Bring Suit for Big Damages.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 8.—Saturday, which was the Jewish Sabbath, at 5:30 in the afternoon, the hour when the descendants of Jacob meet to pray and listen to a discourse from a rabbi, the synagogue of the Sons of Jacob was filled with devout worshippers.

A stranger rabbi, for such he was taken to be, arose and began to preach in the Hebrew tongue.

He was clever and the audience was much taken with him. Suddenly he began to preach Christ crucified.

A match dropped into a can of powder could not have created a greater commotion. Instantly the congregation was on its feet demanding that the man be put out of the house.

The man continued to preach Christ as though talking to the most appreciative audience, and a moment later everybody made a rush for him at once.

He attempted to defend himself, but was knocked down, and, after his head was well thumped on the floor, dragged and thrown out of the synagogue, the stranger took the hint and concluded that he was not wanted there.

It seems that the stranger was a converted Polish Jew named Nathaniel Friedman, who lives at 626 Lawson street. He claims that he was invited there by a prominent member of the Sons of Jacob, and told that he might preach a short sermon.

Friedman stated Sunday evening that he would bring suit against the Sons of Jacob to recover damages for the injuries, etc. Friedman is not seriously hurt, but has some big bumps on his head, which he received by having his head bumped on the floor.

NO WONDER.

A Man With Seven Bullets in Him, Who Can Not Recover.

CREAL SPRINGS, Ill., Aug. 8.—Sunday morning a shooting scrape occurred in the restaurant of Wilkinson & Wade, Ed Seager and the proprietors being the participants. The trouble grew out of Seager refusing to pay for a meal of victuals, the price of which was twenty-five cents, whereupon Seager began the row, slapping the face of Wilkinson, when the latter drew his revolver and fired at Seager. Wade also opened fire on Seager. After the smoke of battle cleared away it was found that Seager had been hit seven times—one ball hitting him in the mouth, one in the neck, one in the back and three in the abdomen. The wounded man was taken to comfortable quarters, where a physician was called and dressed his wounds.
Wilkinson and Wade left for parts unknown.

Actor Scanlan Loses His Speech.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—W. J. Scanlan, the comedian, has reached the second stage of the malady from which he is suffering, and which an intimate friend of the late Bartley Campbell, who died of paresis, describes as the loss of the power of speech. This gentleman was a constant attendant of the playwright during his illness, and claims that Scanlan's case is identical. He declares that there is no hope for the actor, that the third and last stage will follow soon, and that Mrs. Scanlan understands full the critical condition of her husband. She visits him daily at Bloomingdale.

The Latest Swindle.

Ten dollar bills are not ordinarily to be picked up in great numbers in the street, but a benevolent institution now at work in New York and Chicago proposes, according to its announcements, to make these pleasant little evidences of wealth as common as mud. Practically by the mere subscribing of thirty cents for a great, very great, weekly newspaper, you will receive ten dollars. The more times you subscribe the more ten dollars you will receive, without limit.

The philanthropic persons whose unselfish scheme of enriching their fellow-men exists under the name of "James Lee & Co., Chicago and New York." In very many newspapers of the country which have found willing to assist in such benevolence for hire they have recently inserted flaming advertisements, alluringly setting forth their intentions. One of them, which appeared in a Boston newspaper, began in this fascinating way: A fortune in a puzzle: a prize for every correct word: eight prize word puzzles.
If you cannot guess the puzzle the firm will guess them for you, and then give you ten dollars for every correct answer. There is a string to it, however.
Your prize is not cash, but in a Long Island synd lot worth $1 50 an acre, for which you pay $5. The scheme seems to be a prosperous one if the immense amount of mail matter at the firm's Broadway office is an indication.
